Past President, Cheryl George, will serve her sixth consecutive year on the board during 2010.

Family Eldercare's Board of Directors named Angela Atwood and Aldo Waker as Co-Executive Directors. Angela Atwood has been with Family Eldercare for more than two years as Chief Operating Officer. Atwood has more than 18 years of experience in nonprofit management and has directed the development of multiple programs in Central Texas. She attended the University of Michigan's School of Public Health and holds a Master of Public Affairs from The University of Texas' LBJ School of Public Affairs and a Bachelor of Arts from The University of Texas. Aldo Waker came to Family Eldercare with more than 20 years of financial management experience and has served as Chief Financial Officer at Family Eldercare for the past year. Waker holds a Masters in Public Health from Boston University with specializations in health economics and gerontology, and is accredited by the College for Financial Planning. Atwood and Waker replace Karen Langley who retires at the end of 2009. Langley is known for her passion, commitment and tireless advocacy on behalf of older adults and adults with disabilities. Langley was executive director for 20 years.

About Family Eldercare:

For nearly 30 years, Family Eldercare has supported aging in community by helping seniors in Central Texas live safely and as independently as possible, regardless of their income level or ability to pay. Family Eldercare advocates for those who can't advocate for themselves. Family Eldercare currently serves over 6,600 individuals and their caregivers.
